

FARM BUREAU IN ANNUAL SESSION

Adams County Shipped Over $40,000 Worth of Corn to Ohio. Members are Told.

PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR

Farm Products Show among Other Things Favored. Officers are Elected. Addresses and Discussions.

The second annual meeting of the Adams County Farm Bureau was held Thursday afternoon in the Court House. About 100 farmers were present to hear the report of County Agent H. F. Hershey of the work done last year and the outline for the work of the coming year.

The meeting was called to order by President J. L. Butt and after the routine business was dispensed with he called on E. K. Hishman of State College to address the meeting. Mr. Hishman dwelt on the value of a program in outlining work and told of the work which has been done in some of the other counties along special lines of work. He cited instances of Bradford and Susquehanna counties as being centers for pure bred dairy cattle due to the work of cow testing associations. Poor animals were weeded out and, by the use of pure bred sires through co-operative bull associations, better cows with records are being raised and these counties are attracting the attention of buyers throughout the whole country. The community idea was also outlined. A number of men in a given community get together, outline the agricultural needs of that community and with the assistance of the county agent see it is carried out.

Miss McAllister outlined the work of the Home Economics Department and told of the plans of the coming year. She dwelt especially on the hot lunches for schools.

The County Agent reported that agents of the state of Ohio were attracted to the county last spring for seed corn by a number of samples of corn which he had sent to State College for testing. These samples germinated well and Adams County furnished to the state of Ohio 13,542 bushels of corn. This corn was sold at $3.00 per bushel, an average advance of $1.35 per bushel over the prevailing price of corn and the farmers of the county were enriched to the extent of $18,181.70. The statistical report was as follows:

Number of farm visits	377
Number of office calls	545
Number of telephone calls	633
Total number of letters mailed	832
Circular letters mailed	8,000
Miles traveled by auto	6,532
Meetings attended	22
Total attendance at meetings	735
Articles for newspapers	34

Further report was made of all lines of work carried on, most of which needs more than one year's work to show results.

The plan of the work for the coming year was definitely outlined and includes the formation of cow testing and co-operative bull associations. Many of the farmers were deeply interested in these matters and promised their co-operation. Boys and girls club work will be started on quite a large scale. It is planned to further the growing of hogs by the use of pasture crops. Two farmers in different parts of the county have signified their intention of co-operating in this work and will keep cost accounts this coming year. Other projects outlined were Steer Feeding Work, Corn Variety Tests, Oats Smut Eradication, Fruit Survey, and a County Farm Products Show.

The question of good roads was brought up in the meeting by Arthur Roberts, of Arendtsville. It was the consensus of opinion of the meeting that a more definite system of roadmaking should prevail in the county. Representative Grist suggested that through farmers' organizations much good could be accomplished.

The treasurer's report showed that $500.00 had been received from the county commissioners and $314.00 were subscribed by private persons. Bills received amounted to $993.74 leaving an indebtedness of $179.74.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, E. F. Straubhaar, Orrtanna; vice president, W. H. Stock, New Oxford; secretary, John C. Bream, Gettysburg; treasurer, W. E. Koser, Biglerville; executive committee: J. L. Butt, Gettys-

COUNTY MAN HAS VARIED FORTUNES

Third Interest in Productive Oil Well. In Serious Automobile Accident.

It was the good fortune of a former York Springs boy, Charles G. Hershey, now of Pittsburgh, to discover a heavy oil producing well.

Two months ago at Sandy Creek, an oil center about twelve miles north of Pittsburgh, a gusher was struck at a depth of 2200 feet which is running as high as 150 barrels of oil per day. The well has been producing steadily for the past two months and it is estimated that it will produce 35,000 barrels of oil before being exhausted which is a pretty valuable proposition with crude oil worth over four dollars a barrel at present time. Mr. Hershey is a third owner in this venture which proved so successful.

Mr. Hershey, of Pittsburgh, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hershey, of York Springs. He met with a serious automobile accident recently, when his car turned turtle and pinned him underneath breaking his right arm and causing other injuries.

The accident occurred near Sandy Creek. Mr. Hershey was driving his light roadster along an ice covered road near the town when his car skidded and turned over twice rolling into a small creek upside down. Mr. Hershey was pinned underneath the car, immersed in the icy water until some people came driving by and rescued him. He was rushed home for medical treatment and at first it was feared that he would have an attack of pneumonia from exposure in the water but fortunately that did not develop.

Mr. Hershey's injuries consisted of a broken right arm, both arms were dislocated at the shoulder, his face cut and body bruised. At latest report he was in a convalescent state and if no complications arise he is expected to recover fully.

FOR GOOD ROADS

And no Toll. People in County are now Moving.

People of McSherrystown and vicinity interested in the cause of good roads have decided to join the Hanover Association. One of the first things that will be undertaken at the McSherrystown end is the freeing of the pike from that place to Hanover. At the next meeting of the Hanover Association it is likely that a delegation of citizens will attend. The farmers in that section are much interested and ready to take a hand in helping to free the toll roads and improve the country by roads.

BROUGHT CARS BY THE WRONG ROUTE

Army Outfit Misdirected on its Way to Gettysburg and Arrived here Late.

GO FROM EAST TO WEST

Reverse the Usual Order for Motor Transportation through Gettysburg. Here over Night.

Losing their way, a train of about forty army automobiles bound from Camp Holabird, Baltimore, to Camp Knox, Kentucky, arrived in Gettysburg between eight and nine o'clock Thursday evening and stayed here over night and the greater part of today. They came a number of miles off their route.

It seems that the train left Baltimore on Thursday morning and, according to a story told by one of the men, had gotten as far as Westminster when they asked a civilian to direct them. He stated that he was going their way and told them to follow. Instead of giving them the proper clue he led them on to Hanover and there they were told the route which eventually brought them to Gettysburg.

The route from here will be along the Lincoln Highway to Pittsburgh and then by direct road to Camp Knox. It is understood that the Gettysburg route was chosen because of the condition of the road from here to the west.

The Red Cross had received word early in the evening that they were coming but the telephone message stated that they would be here inside of a half hour. It was thought too late to prepare supper and that the best thing was to send the men to a restaurant. They did not appear until long after schedule but local workers did not know this would be the case. So they did not follow the usual procedure of being fed in St. James recreation rooms.

Lodging was given them at Xavier Hall the cars being parked on Baltimore street. This thoroughfare looked quite military with the olive drab machines standing there, several dozen soldiers, and all equipment, and the army aspect was further increased when a big train of Garfords rolled in on their way from the West to Camp Holabird. They went on through without stopping.

Another olive drab truck came in during the morning but this was one of the Army machines recently turned over to the mail service and now operating between McConnellsburg and Gettysburg.

UNDER BIG WAGON

But All Escape Serious Injury. One Slightly Hurt.

Sylvester Bream, of near York Springs, received a blackened eye and other painful injuries in a driving accident recently. In company with his nephew, Adam F. Bream, and family, he was returning home from Mr. Holly Springs, in a top spring wagon. Descending the hill at Sol. Golden's the vehicle skidded on the ice and upset, pinning the occupants beneath. Fortunately the pole broke and released the two horses attached and Adam Bream was able to get out his family and uncle from underneath the wagon. None of the party was injured except Sylvester who received the injuries noted.

The horses were caught by Mr. Golden.

For several months he was engaged in government work at Amato, New Jersey, and more recently with the concern with which he is now connected.

TAX FORMS COMING

No Delay to be Experienced in Making Returns of Incomes.

Forms for reporting income taxes of less than $5,000. It is announced by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Daniel C. Roper, are expected to be in the hands of collectors for distribution among taxpayers not later than February 1. "It may be definitely stated," said the Commissioner "that taxes for the calendar year 1918 will be collected under the provisions of the pending bill as finally enacted, and not under the provisions of the Act of October 3, 1917."

Commissioner Roper said that the conferees on the revenue bill have made sufficient progress to warrant the Bureau in proceeding at once to print and distribute forms for the collection of the income tax of 1918. In order to facilitate the work of the Bureau the conferees are disposing as rapidly as possible of those provisions of the bill directly affecting the form for reporting incomes of less than $5,000. Preparation of the other forms is proceeding concurrently with the work of the conferees, and it will be ready shortly after the enactment of the law.

500 LOST WHEN SHIP HITS MINE

Only Four Minutes in which to Make Escape and Passengers are Drowned.

(By Cable)

Palermo, Jan. 17.—Five hundred passengers are reported to have perished when the French steamer "Xhapiro" struck a mine in the Straits of Messina and sank in four minutes.

There were 650 persons on board the ship which had sailed from Marseilles and 150 of them were rescued by the British steamer "Cageston" which was close at hand. The others either went down with the doomed ship or were caught by the suction after they had jumped. A number are also thought to have been killed by the explosion.

The "Cageston" and other boats stood by for several hours and picked up a number of survivors, some of whom died after they were taken on board. It is believed that a majority of the victims went down with the "Xhapiro". Neither the "Xhapiro" or the "Cageston" is listed in Lloyd's registry and it is thought that both names were likely garbled in the cable transmission.

HUNT CRAZED MURDERER

Believe he is Responsible for Deaths of Four Women.

New York, Jan. 17.—The police of this city are hunting for a lunatic who is believed to be responsible for the violent deaths of four women.

The most recent murder was that of fourteen-year-old May Ridell who was found with her head crushed. She had been robbed. Recently Mrs. Theima Southland was slain in a similar manner while she was crossing a vacant lot.

The murders are very much like those of two women reported recently from New Jersey and it is believed that probably all of the crimes were committed by the same lunatic.

LIEBKNECHT DEAD, OFFICIAL REPORT

Is Slain while Trying to Escape. Rosa Luxemburg Meets with Foul Play.

GERMANY'S NEW TROUBLES

Five Divisions of Troops Holding Power in Berlin. Rioting in Other Cities.

(By Cable)

London, Jan. 17.—Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg have both been killed, an official dispatch from Berlin to-day states. It is announced by the Government that persons responsible for the murders will be dealt with severely.

Basel, Jan. 17.—"The Frankfurter Zeitung" corroborates the official announcement of the deaths of Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg.

Liebknecht is said to have been shot while trying to escape from his house to a military depot. The woman was caught on the street and beaten into insensibility and then thrown into the Aladewer Canal where she was drowned.

Zurich, Jan. 17.—Dispatches from German cities to-day tell that rioting has broken out afresh among the Spartacans with the news of the death of Karl Liebknecht. Their leader had been reported captured, wounded, and killed at other times but the official announcement raised the Spartacans to a frenzy and they immediately started mobilization of their scattered forces.

Five new divisions of German troops are reported to be in Berlin and the city is said to give the appearance of being almost entirely occupied by soldiery. They have the situation in the capital well in hand.

WILSON OPTIMISTIC

Believes that Peace Conference will Attain its Purpose.

(By Cable)

Paris, Jan. 17.—On the eve of the formal opening of the peace conference it may be stated authoritatively that President Wilson is more optimistic regarding the general situation than at any time since his arrival in Europe.

When the preliminary conference was resumed to-day it was expected that the delegates would act on the publicity demands of the newspaper correspondents. It is said that President Wilson supports the demands of the British and American correspondents for adhering to his term of "open covenants, openly arrived at". The correspondents will be present at the opening session to-morrow. President Poincare will make the welcoming address and other addresses will be made.

ASKS AN INQUIRY INTO ARMY WORK

Wants to Know why Seven Thousand Casualties Occurred in One Division.

TO PROBE ARGONNE FIGHT

Congress is Asked for Investigation. Likely to Spread as More Bring up Matters.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Criticism of blunders, mismanagement and inefficiency in the command of the American expeditionary forces gathered momentum in congress yesterday when Representative Campbell, of Kansas, introduced a resolution calling for a congressional investigation of reports about the Argonne forest battle.

Men who went through this fighting with the Thirty-fifth division have told Campbell that this division alone suffered 7000 casualties in a few days' fighting, largely, they say, for lack of airplane guidance, insufficient ammunition and inadequate artillery support. In addition, the charge is made that because of complete breakdown of the medical establishment 1200 wounded men were left lying where they fell for more than thirty-six hours, without shelter, food or blankets, with the result that there were many needless deaths.

Now that Campbell has taken the lead with respect to the Thirty-fifth division, which was composed largely of Kansas men, it is expected other representatives will make public facts in their possession as to needless slaughter in other American contingents, because of mismanagement either in the war department or the overseas command.

Representative Gallivan, of Massachusetts, who made serious charges against the officering of the overseas forces on the floor of the house on Tuesday, will be one of those to press the matter.

Representative Butler, of West Chester, Pa., is another who has been chafing against a self-imposed ban of silence concerning the gross inefficiency in the army. Butler was one of the congressmen who personally investigated conditions at the front and came home with some painful knowledge as to the fate of the members of the Pennsylvania divisions.

Representative Campbell's resolution calls for the appointment of a committee of five representatives to ascertain the facts as to the Argonne forest fighting and report back to the house not later than February 20. It was sent to the rules committee, and is certain to have immediate consideration by that body.

While the resolution applies only to the Argonne forest fighting there is little probability that congressional investigation will limit itself to the incidents of that battle alone. There are many serious accusations made as to the handling of the troops in other battles, and there are now plenty of discharged officers and men who went through all the major combats to warrant a probe covering all the encounters where it appears there were needless casualties.

burg; C. J. Tyson, Flora Dale; Frank Waybright, Gettysburg; Clayton Berkheimer, Birminghams; Prof. H. Milton Roth, Gettysburg.

A meeting of those interested in the formation of a national farm loan association was held immediately after the Farm Bureau meeting. It was brought out that a number of farmers were very much interested in the proposition and the consensus of opinion was that an attempt should be made to form an association. It is expected to hold a meeting whenever enough farmers signify their intention of joining and a representative of the Federal Land Bank at Baltimore will be secured to explain the details of operation. Any one interested should consult the County Agent.

On July 17, 1916, President Wilson signed the Farm Loan Act and it became a law immediately. The purpose of this Act is to provide long term loans to farmers and holders of land with the privilege of repayment in installments through a long or short period of years, at the borrower's option. With this end in view twelve Federal Land Banks were established in the several sections of the country.

These Federal Land Banks will loan money to farmers only if there is sufficient demand in a community for such loans. The first step in the securing of loans is the establishment of a local farm loan association. Its membership must consist of ten or more farmers or prospective borrowers and they must apply for loans of $20,000 or more.

FORTY SIX REDS ARE CONVICTED

Speedy Verdict by Jury at Sacramento. Some Interesting Testimony.

Sacramento, Jan. 17.—All the forty six defendants in the I. W. W. conspiracy case were found guilty by a jury in the United States District Court here last night.

The verdict "guilty as charged" was returned at six o'clock, after the jury had been out since 4:35 o'clock. Sentences will be imposed to-day by United States Judge Frank H. Rudkin, of Spokane, Wash.

In his charge to the jury Judge Rudkin said:

"The mere fact that these defendants are Industrial Workers of the World, should not justify a verdict of guilt. The fact that they may be found to be conscientious objectors to war should not be held against them in the consideration of this case. Opinions which they hold in opposition to war and which undeniably stand alone are not an evidence of guilt."

The jury retired after Robert Duncan, chief government prosecutor, made the concluding statement, in which he said:

"The I. W. Ws. respect no flag but the red flag. They would drag us all down to the level of the lowest man."

He read at length from journals of the organization which were alleged to have stated that "no peace officer could be a member of the I. W. W."; "the uniform of the United States soldier is merely the livery of the 'scab' and 'sabotage is a sign of courage'."

Plans of the Distillers' Interests Outlined.

New York, Jan. 17.—Distilling interests of the country, anticipating enforcement of nationwide prohibition a year hence, have completed plans for the conversion of their manufacturing plants and for export of the whiskeys and other spirits now in bond. Norman R. Sterne, president of the Transoceanic Commercial Corporation, newly organized export subsidiary of the Distillers' Securities Corporation declared here.

New York Preparing for the Great Dry Era.

New York, Jan. 17.—New York began Thursday to provide for a dry future. Hardly had the news been flashed across the wires that the legislature of Nebraska had ratified the prohibition amendment, making America bone dry, when staid residents of Manhattan began to store up a lasting supply of wet goods. Some public hotels, saloons and retail liquor goods houses reported that their usual daily sales had doubled.

Proprietors of restaurants where representative citizens are wont to dine said the consumption of strong beverages was double the normal.

LIEBKNECHT IS ARRESTED

Reported Captured in Berlin by Mounted Guard. Conduct Systematic Search for Arms.

London, Jan. 17.—A German government wireless message says that the first separate national assembly in Germany met Wednesday at Karlsruhe. The people's ministers formally surrendered their mandate to the assembly, which requested them to continue their administration.

The German troops evacuated Mianu on January 13, the message said.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the Spartacan leader, has been captured, it was learned, by officers and men of the division of Mounted Rifle Guards, who arrived in Berlin Wednesday.

The Spartacan leader is said to have been seized and taken to the fashionable Hotel Eden in the western part of Berlin. Private telephone communication with the hotel was cut off abruptly soon after it was reported that he had been taken there.

Details of Proclamation

Berlin, Jan. 17.—Details of the proclamation of the Independent Communist (Spartacan) Republic of Bremen, are contained in a special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger. The governing council is composed of three members each from the Independent Socialists, the Spartacans and the Soldiers' Council. The Senate has been compelled to surrender its authority and the press has been placed under a preventative censorship and compelled to publish proclamations of the new government.

The Spartacans are carrying on a vigorous agitation throughout northwestern Germany. Attempts to seize the power at Delmenhorst and Wilhelmshaven failed. At Delmenhorst the citizens joined the majority Socialists in the putting down of the agitators. At Wilhelmshaven the Spartacans seized the offices of the Tageblatt and Zeitung, but loyal soldiers compelled the Spartacans and Independent Socialists to surrender and lay down their arms.

Dispatches dated in Wilhelmshaven Tuesday declared that a barracks in which were quartered 490 marines who had joined the Independents, had been surrounded by government troops. It was said they probably would be obliged to surrender in a few days.

2,000 Rifles Seized

Berlin, Jan. 17.—The systematic search of the Moabit district of Berlin by the government forces continues. More than 2,000 rifles, four machine guns and an uncounted number of revolvers already have been recovered. The authorities intend to extend the search to other sections of the city.

More than 300 persons have been arrested on the streets for carrying weapons without permit, which is a serious offense.

The work of finding weapons is being done in a most thorough manner. The correspondent in a walk of one mile one night was stopped three times and asked whether he had weapons. He was required to show his special pass before being permitted to proceed.

LEAGUE COVENANT ADVANCED

Progress Made on Draft of Plan as Result of Conference.

Paris, Jan. 17.—The draft of the league of nations in the form of treaty enactment has now proceeded much further than generally supposed as a result of recent conferences between Lord Robert Cecil, Secretary Lansing and Colonel House, at which the best features of the various projects were embodied in concrete form of enactment. This is called a covenant, instead of a treaty, and re-embraces 13 articles and eighty supplementary provisions which bring together the main features of all the plans presented.

The covenant while still subject to much revision probably will be ready for congress or committee whenever the subject is considered.

WOMAN AMBASSADOR

Rozsika Schwimmer, a Hungarian writer and pacifist who now resides in Switzerland, has been appointed an ambassador by the Hungarian government for that post in Switzerland. Mme. Schwimmer is the originator of the Ford peace ship idea and was one of the prominent figures in that peace mission. She will enter upon her duties in the very near future at Berne.

PREPARING FOR THE PEACE WORK

Clearing Way for Deliberations of Actual Conference soon to Start.

Paris, Jan. 17.—Besides Premier Clemenceau as presiding officer at the Peace Conference, provision has been made for several vice presidents, who doubtless will include an American, sitting alongside of M. Clemenceau at the head of the conference table and occasionally alternating with him in presiding over the deliberations of the congress.

The American delegation has not yet designated any one for this function. It is generally understood, however, that the premiers of the various countries will act in this capacity, and as President Wilson occupies a position similar to that of the premiers, the congress naturally would call on him, if he so desired it, to act as a vice president, though it is thought that he would prefer that some other member of the delegation take his place. In that case, it would probably fall to Secretary Lansing, as secretary of state, or else to Henry White, who, as temporary presiding officer, would have an advantage, being a linguist, when addressed by delegates speaking only in French.

The position of vice president, in addition to being a highly honorable one, has the practical advantage of a position at the head of the table with the other premiers and also of conducting the deliberations when M. Clemenceau is absent or yields the chair.

Opening of Congress

Paris, Jan. 17.—The inauguration of the Peace Congress on Saturday will be carried out with ceremonies befitting such an occasion. A detachment of troops will pay honors to the arriving delegates, and, Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, will receive President Wilson at the head of the steps of the Foreign Ministry and accompany him to the room where the meeting will begin at 3 o'clock sharp.

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

The Honor Flag Will Bear a Blue V on a White Field.

The honor flag of the loan will bear a blue "V" on a white field surrounded by a red border, the "V" indicating both five and victory.

END CAME AS HE HELPED WOUNDED

Chaplain Tells Further Details of Death and Burial of Sergeant Ocker.

Mrs. Martha J. Ocker, of Littlestown, has received a letter from the chaplain who buried her son, Sergeant John W. Ocker, telling how the young man met his death. He was killed while on the field of battle helping the wounded. The letter follows:

My dear Mrs. Ocker:—
Dr. Hanigan consulted me last night about the death and burial of your son, John, and I told him that I would write to you telling all that I knew about it. He came up to the dressing station on some mission from his detachment, and as I understand, volunteered to go to the front for a wounded man. It was while on this mission that he was hit by a piece of high explosive shell, and instantaneously killed. His body was recovered and buried in a little cemetery at the edge of the Consenvoye Woods, about ten miles north of Verdun. His grave is number 63.

About two hundred brave men of the 29th Division, who gave their lives to the cause of justice and humanity, are buried in this little cemetery. There is no more honored place for a soldier to be buried than upon this great battlefield, nor a better place for his body to rest than in the sacred soil of France, hallowed by the blood of hundreds of thousands of the world's finest men.

I knew your son personally and we were all shocked at his unfortunate death. It ought to be a comfort to you to know that he died while heroically doing his duty. His personal effects have been sent to the Central Records Office and will be forwarded to you very soon. We consider it wise to allow the bodies of these men to remain where buried. Should you desire to visit his grave or have his remains sent home, his grave will always be easily located. I hope to be able to get a photograph of the cemetery soon; in case I do I will send a copy to you with his grave indicated.

Hoping you will find a comfort in the knowledge that he died so worthily, and strength in fellowship with the Eternal I am,

Sincerely yours,
F. C. Reynolds,
Chaplain, 115th Infantry.

Marine Writes Police he was Exonerated.

A letter received by Chief of Police H. S. Byers of Chambersburg contained the information that William G. Seward, the marine who was arrested in company with Private Joseph G. Giles of the medical corps of the army about two weeks ago for the theft of a Packard touring car from E. J. Flanagan of Philadelphia, was exonerated from any blame or guilt in the theft at a hearing on January 15. Seward was allowed to return to his camp at Quantico, Va. Giles, however, was not so fortunate, as he was turned over to the military authorities for punishment. Giles himself admitted the theft and absolved Seward from any connection with it before the Philadelphia police left Chambersburg with him.

PORTO RICO IS BIG HELP IN WINNING WAR

Great Work of People of Island
Revealed for First Time.

RECORD IS AMAZING ONE

Achievements in Raising Army, Helping Red Cross and Boosting Liberty Loans Are Recounted—Faced Big Handicap in Earthquake.

San Juan, Porto Rico.—What the people of Porto Rico have done in the war will gain for them the friendship, love and gratitude of the entire population of the United States. The war activities of this patriotic island have been so effective that one cannot help but become amazed at all that has been accomplished.

That thousands of people here have done everything within their power, to save and give, in an effort to help win this war is the simple truth, and they can well feel proud of their record. To every single appeal made in behalf of the war Porto Rico has responded gallantly. Ten million dollars has been invested in the four Liberty loans. The spirit of the people was well demonstrated in the fourth Liberty loan drive, when the island exceeded her quota of $4,000,000 by almost $800,000 despite the disaster caused by the earthquake, which cost Porto Rico millions of dollars. This calamity occurred during the drive. The beautiful cities of Mayaguez and Aguadilla were virtually destroyed, but they exceeded their quota.

The Red Cross has spread its light to every nook and corner of Porto Rico. The Porto Rican chapter of the American Red Cross has undertaken every branch of work conducted in the States. The great work which the chapter is now doing in the matter of home service has been developed since the call of the men of Porto Rico to Camp Las Casas.

Home Service Work.

There are fully organized active branches of the society in every municipality. Through these branches the most devoted and patriotic service is being given to the work of the Red Cross by the people of the entire island. This is especially true in connection with the home service work, which means the bringing of help and comfort and giving material means of support to the wives, children and other dependents of the men who have joined the army. There are 65 active and patriotic committees of home service.

The Red Cross is doing a great work in looking after the needy and destitute families of the soldiers at Camp Las Casas. During August the chapter cared for 2,053 families of soldiers. During September 1,019 families were cared for. The recent earthquakes added greatly to the relief work.

In the second war fund drive, which was carried on throughout the island in the months of May and June, 1918, the people made donations in excess of $105,000.

Mr. Mack Jones, a coffee planter and mayor of the little town of Villalba, has this to say of the people in his home vicinity: "We were asked for $8,400 in the third Liberty loan. Small merchants and day laborers made a canvass of the little town and the surrounding mountain sides on horseback. The laborers in this region get about 60 cents a day, yet these good people were able to raise $12,000, or 50 per cent more than their quota. If you could but see the cliffs they climbed and the dangerous trails they followed, where a misstep means a drop of 1,000 feet or more, in their work of solicitation on behalf of Uncle Sam it would make you wish that Washington could know the full measure of their devotion. Does not this also speak for the patriotism of these people?"

Much Food Saved.

The people have invested their money freely in Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps. The saving of food has been so efficiently preached and has been so well organized by the food commission that vast quantities of food have been saved.

Another example of the wonderful patriotism of the people was demonstrated in the work of Mr. Antonio Arbona, a coffee planter living near Ciales. The coffee planters of Porto Rico have suffered greatly on account of there being no market for their coffee in the States. On account of the war their foreign market was cut off. There are 150,000 people in Porto Rico dependent upon the coffee industry for a livelihood and the coffee condition has caused the people much suffering. Mr. Arbona, a man more than sixty years old, covered two barrios on horseback and succeeded in selling to the small coffee planters more than $16,000 of Liberty bonds in the fourth campaign, most of these being $50 and $100 bonds.

In all things pertaining to war work the Spanish merchants throughout the island have co-operated to the fullest extent. Liberty bonds they have given freely to the Red Cross. I have never come in contact with a class of business men who give more freely than these, or more cheerfully, either.

When the Red Cross was seeking a new home 45 business men—Spaniards, Porto Ricans and Americans—donated $11,000, this money being raised in a few hours, thus enabling the Red Cross to have quarters in one building.

The Four-Minute Men.

The "Four-Minute Men" of Porto Rico did a great work in speeding the winning of the war. All of the principal centers of population were thoroughly covered and thousands of people were reached through the speakers of this organization. Among them were some of the most representative men of the country.

During food conservation week a campaign was conducted by public school teachers in every town and barrio. The number of public meetings held during that week exceeded 2,000. Both urban and rural teachers made a house-to-house canvass to explain the meaning of the pledge cards and to secure signatures. The great parade organized during this week was one of the most important which had ever taken place. Thousands participated. Every public school teacher marched, as well as the pupils.

The gospel of food economy, increased food production, improved methods of cultivation and the necessity of planting a greater variety of home products, has been preached to every corner of the island. The schools have been instrumental in the establishment of 26,653 home gardens, thereby assisting Porto Rico to solve the food problem.

The children here are deserving of much praise for what they have done, and the example they set led others on to greater efforts. They are all members of the Red Cross. A few of them were able to secure from their parents the money needed for their contribution, but the majority made up their minds that they would earn this money themselves. All over the island children organized festivals to get funds needed for membership fees. In Fajardo and Rio Piedras, a total of 1,850 school children enrolled as Junior Red Cross members and earned every cent that they contributed. Thousands of dollars have been raised by these children. They have participated in all civic parades organized for this purpose.

Delicacies Sent Abroad.
Last year 40 tons of guava jelly and 2,000,000 cigarettes were sent to the boys in France.

Thousands of women in Porto Rico, from San Juan, the capital, throughout the entire island, including the towns of the hills, have devoted their time and given their money and services to all things needed for the war. All social activities were carried on solely for the benefit of war work. In many sections of Porto Rico women took the place of the men in the fields.

Porto Rico contributed freely and generously of her man power and the very best of her youth entered the training camps. Just after the passage of the selective draft law Porto Rico registered her young men to the number of 108,000. The Porto Rico regiment was the first in the nation to be at its full war strength. Six hundred and fifty volunteers were accepted for duty to guard the Panama canal. When General Townsend took up the work of recruiting, many of the men who lived far back in the hills walked as much as 25 miles to enlist.

NEGRO HAS 12 SONS IN ARMY

Gets 12-Star Service Pin From the Red Cross and Congratulatory
Letter From President.

Bayville, La.—The Rev. H. R. Windsor, negro minister of the Baptist church here, has received a 12-star service pin, the gift of the American Red Cross.

Rev. Windsor has 19 sons, 12 of them in the army. There are twins and triplets wearing the olive drab. The minister also received a congratulatory letter from President Wilson. Eight of the boys enlisted and four were drafted.

NEGRO, OVER 100, IN COURT

Testifies on Behalf of His Great-Granddaughter Who Is Seeking Alimony.

Atlanta, Ga.—Will Wright, a negro over one hundred years old, was a witness recently in the divorce courts of Atlanta, testifying on behalf of his great-granddaughter, who was seeking alimony. Wright, who was known along in 1848 as "Fiddler Bill," declared on the stand that, although he had "called" at many a dance in the old days, he "hadn't fiddled any since 1866, when he joined de church."

"Biddie" on the Job.

Mrs. Sidney Kirby, living northwest of Moberly, Mo., has a patriotic hen which she claims is the champion patriotic hen of Missouri. Biddie has raised three broods of chickens since last spring and the fourth will soon be hatched. Not satisfied with the three broods, the hen stole away some twenty eggs and made a nest in a cane shock.

The Fragrant Weed.

The use of tobacco was first discovered in America when Columbus, in 1492, sent his first party to explore the island of Cuba. It was first observed that these herbs were burned and carried by the natives to perfume themselves. It was later discovered that these herbs were also used for chewing, and later as America was opened up and explored, it was observed that they were smoked in large quantities.

Enough Said.

Brother and sister were parted for the first time, he going on a month's trip with their mother and father and she to spend the month with their grandparents. The leave taking was rather strained, as neither one of them quite knew what to say. Finally little brother walked up and putting his arms around his sister said: "Mardret, I'm your brother an' you're my sister."

COLLECTS NAILS AND PINS

Knoxville, Tenn. Man Makes It a Hobby and Has Gathered Them by Thousands.

Knoxville, Tenn.—During the past year Matt Lyle, well-known about town here, has picked up pins of various kinds, nails and screws from the streets in surprising quantities. Here is the record he claims for the twelve months between October 10, 1917, and the corresponding date of this year.

Pins, 10,400; safety pins, 375; hairpins, 400; screws, 500; nails (gathered in three years), four bags.

No pin or nail of any kind escapes his attention. If he sees a crooked nail he takes it to his home on Morgan street, near the Southern railway, along with his other findings, where he straightens it out and lays it away. His nails are put in a keg at the end of each day. His pins are placed carefully in a cloth which he carries in his pocket at all times. As soon as he gets 1,000 pins in one of these pieces of cloth he takes it home and locks it up in a box, where they are all kept.

He would not give one of these nails or pins to his best friend, he declares. He adds, however, that he might some day sell the nails.

WILLING TO GO WHEN PEACE FINALLY ARRIVED

New York.—While a New York humorist was attending a Broadway theatrical performance recently he heard a United States war fund worker introduce a soldier as follows: "I take great pleasure in introducing Private So-and-So. I don't know whether he has been 'over there,' but he certainly was willing to go when peace was declared."

SHE GETS MARRIAGE LICENSE

South Dakota Bride-to-Be Buys Document, Pays $1 for It, Then Hunts Up the Judge.

Mitchell, S. D.—Cupid and woman suffrage have apparently formed a corporation here. Miss Marie Gipper, twenty-two years old, strode into the offices of the clerk of courts of Davison county one morning recently and plunked a dollar on the desk to pay for the first marriage license that has ever been bought in this county by a woman. After she had procured the license she went out and found the municipal judge.

While obtaining the license Miss Gipper explained that her husband-to-be was "too busy to get the license." The apparent object of the purchase was inscribed on the clerk's record as Ray Porer, also of Mitchell.

NO CHARITY FOR CONVICTS

Club Among Themselves to Provide the Funds for New Start
When Released.

Philadelphia.—Convicts at the Eastern penitentiary here have decided not to depend on charity alone to give them a fresh start when they are released. An honor and friendship club is now flourishing at the institution. The members, many of whom have been skilled artisans, made articles of value which are sold through outside agencies, and the money derived therefrom is used to give newly-released convicts funds which will tide them over until they can begin making their own living once again.

Private Isaac Mycroft of the Leicestershire regiment, who has recently been reported killed, was wounded six times and gassed once. This is all that is known of Private Mycroft's record in the army, but it is enough. Six times wounded and six times patched up and sent back into the firing line, and at last to die, still fighting—surely no man could do more!

USE OF MOONSHINE IS CAUSING INSANITY

Huntington, W. Va.—Use of moonshine whisky is spreading insanity throughout West Virginia, according to J. B. Coster of the state insane asylum. Insanity is epidemic in the coal regions of Logan county, Coster says. All kinds of ingredients are used in the manufacture of the whisky and much of it, according to the asylum officials, wrecks mind and body.

MUSIC CURES SHELL SHOCK

Victims in England Recover Speech
Under the Influence of Singing.

London.—Music has been found to be beneficial in the treatment of soldiers suffering from shell shock, and now singing is to be tried on a systematic scale, with the approval of the army authorities.

It has been found that singing has both directly and indirectly a wonderful curative effect and there are a number of cases on record in which a man who, unable to speak, suddenly joined in with the singing and so recovered his speech.

An effort is being made to organize regular singing training in all hospitals where there are shell-shock cases.

Naturally there is a good reason for calling golf a royal game, inasmuch as it was the favorite sport of the kings and queens of Scotland and England, as well as the dukes and earls in ancient times. France Has Lost Equal Number Wounded.

NEW YORK.—France in four years of conflict, to preserve her own liberty and that of the world, according to Andre Tardie, French high commissioner to the United States, has lost 1,500,000 men killed and almost as many wounded. America owes France a debt of gratitude not only for this great sacrifice, but also for the reported saving of thousands of lives in this country due to the discovery by French peasants of a perfect remedy for stomach and intestinal ailments, the ingredients of which are imported from France by Geo. H. Mayr, a leading Chicago chemist who sells it in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. MANY CANDIDATES FOR G. O. P. TICKET

DEATH OF ROOSEVELT THROWS WIDE OPEN RACE FOR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

SENATORS ARE CONSIDERED

Lowden of Illinois the Only Governor Mentioned—Rapid Progress Being Made in Ratification of the Prohibition Amendment.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—It has become apparent since the death of Theodore Roosevelt that the Republicans had largely settled upon him as their candidate for 1920. While there were candidates in other parts of the country and many men would have had the support of delegations from their own states and communities, it is evident from what is heard on all sides that the one thing that would have prevented Roosevelt's nomination had he lived would have been his own determination not to be a candidate. Those who were intimately associated with him during the last few months are aware that he had determined not to be a candidate, for he knew better than anybody else the precarious condition of his health. He might not have made any such announcement for some time, but it is known to have been in contemplation.

As the matter now stands, the Republicans are considerably at sea and there are many different names mentioned in connection with the presidential election. And the candidates are from every section of the country, not confined to what has heretofore been the presidential highway, the states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. Among those who have been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination in 1920 are Senators Lodge and Weeks of Massachusetts, Senator Wadsworth of New York, Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, Senator Harding of Ohio, Senator Watson of Indiana, Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, Senator Sherman of Illinois, Senator Townsend of Michigan, Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, Senator Cummins of Iowa, Senator Borah of Idaho and Senator Johnson of California.

There is an absence of the usual crop of governor-candidates. Usually there are a half-dozen or more governors who are considered available presidential material in the pre-convention talk, but this year there is no suggestion of governors, with the single exception of Frank Lowden of Illinois. On the other hand, a number of army officers are mentioned with Pershing at the head. Leonard Wood a good second, and Provost Marshal General Crowder considered available. And since the return of Gen. Clarence Edwards and his popularity with the New England division there is suggestion that he would be available. Edwards was the friend of Mark Hanna, the confidant of Secretaries Root and Taft in the war department, and is known to more public men than almost any other man in the army.

The rapid manner in which the constitutional amendment for the prohibition of liquor is being ratified by the different states seems to indicate the fulfillment of the prediction that the United States will be dry by constitutional amendment one year from next March. By the last of March three-fourths of the states may have ratified the amendment and if so it will go into effect one year after ratification. It is observed that the fight goes on in various states by the liquor interests and all possible legal obstacles are thrown in the way of the adoption of the prohibition amendment, but the prohibition march goes steadily forward.

There is nothing new under the sun, and the same ancient sage has remarked: "Now comes forward George P. Crowder of Boston with an interview in which he asserts that the principle of a cabinet of ministers to govern the world has been established and was adopted by the United Nations at the League of Nations conference in London."

that he could circumnavigate the globe. The Boston man said also that William Penn, the man who founded Pennsylvania, urged the identical principle 240 years ago that is now agitating the world. Pretty soon some Chinaman will bob up and assert that the idea was put forth by Chinese statesmen back in the seventh dynasty, before there was any civilization outside of the flowery kingdom.

The way in which clothing dealers engaged army officers has been beautifully demonstrated since the signing of the armistice. There were more army officers here than in any other city and all of the men's stores carried officers' uniforms, shoes, puttees and other equipment. Many of these stores were very indignant when it was suggested that they were profiteering at the expense of the officers, but it is noticeable of late that prices on officers' uniforms have been cut nearly in half. That is probably the case wherever large numbers of officers have been stationed.

While there is talk of rushing everything in the way of legislation in order to avoid an extra session, it may be mentioned that the house of representatives devoted four or five days to hearing a contested election case. Strange as it may seem, the contest came from Alaska, a territory having a delegate who has no vote. The time was when contested election cases excited considerable interest in the house of representatives. It was a contested election case which precipitated the fight when Tom Reed counted a quorum in the Fifty-first congress, provoking one of the most bitter partisan struggles that has ever been known in the history of congress. Much of the time in the debate in the Alaska case was taken up by the men who are battling for the seat, in a long rehearsal of election conditions in the territory.

On one of the many occasions when Senator Shafroth of Colorado was advocating woman suffrage he mentioned the fact that Sweden had extended suffrage to women, as described in a cable dispatch from Stockholm, the capital of Sweden. Senator Thomas from the same state interrupted to say:

"I should like to ask the senator if they have any watchfires burning at the capital of Sweden."

Senator Thomas alluded to the fact that there were watchfires burning in Lafayette square in front of the White House, into which suffragists from time to time pitched the books and speeches of President Wilson.

Reports from Germany of Count von Bernstorff's loud advocacy of a democracy in that country are read with some disgust by Washingtonians. It was from this city that he conducted his treacherous and underhand campaign of propaganda and destruction against the American people and government. That propaganda had for its motive the establishment of autocracy in Europe and in the course of time throughout the world. The people of Washington look with suspicion on von Bernstorff's sudden change of front and regard it as resulting more from cowardice than from conviction.

One class of people who are likely to turn a deaf ear to criticism of the president's trip to Europe are the war workers in Washington. The war workers have not had an opportunity to do much sight-seeing, for the reason that practically all public buildings were closed to visitors while the war was on. After the armistice had been in force a while the restrictions were removed so far as the public buildings were concerned. But the White House, which every visitor wants to see, remained closed and closely guarded. Then the president sailed for Europe and Secretary Taft issued an order opening the White House.

Trouble is the one thing that gives a man a chance to find out how fine people really are.

First New England White Child. November 20 is the anniversary of the birth of Peregrine White, the first English child born in New England. He was born aboard the Mayflower in Plymouth harbor. After his father's death his mother married Gov. Edward Winslow, the first marriage in New England.

SHELL SHOCK HITS YANKEES LIGHTLY

Few Hundreds Only Are Suffering From War's Strange Malady.

MANY RESTORED BY PEACE

All Victims Will Be Completely Recovered in a Year, Says Surgeon General's Office—Less Than 1,000 Cases to Be Treated.

Washington.—Fear that the nation will have a big problem on its hands in the care of soldiers suffering from shell shock is utterly without foundation, declared Col. Peace Bailey, of the surgeon general's office. Amplifying the statement before the senate military committee that hundreds of victims of the strange disease actually recovered at the signing of the armistice, Colonel Bailey expressed the opinion that so far as present knowledge of the malady indicates, practically all victims of shell shock should be completely recovered within a year, the great majority in a much shorter time.

Less Than Thousand Cases.

Reports received here are that there are now less than a thousand cases of shell shock to be treated, thanks to the improved methods by which the United States army combated the affliction. Preparations had been made to take care of 2,500 cases, sent to this side by March 1, but since hostilities ceased word from France shows there are only 300 cases, there requiring treatment in this country. There are probably about the same number en route home.

It is accepted here that the drop in the expected number of sufferers was due directly to the news of Germany's surrender. The only explanation for this is the removal from the sufferers of apprehension, that they would again be subjected to an ordeal that, acting on the minds, actually twisted their bodies out of shape.

Serious as have been the ravages of shell shock among the troops, said Colonel Bailey, described by Surgeon General Ireland as one of the country's leading psychiatrists, the United States forces have not suffered to the extent those of the other allies have. This is due largely to the fact that 93 per cent of the cases developing have been cured in the field hospitals by the prompt treatment provided.

Given Special Treatment.

The more seriously afflicted are brought to this country and sent to Plattsburg, N. Y., where there is a special hospital of 1,500 beds. Within a short time after admittance most patients avow they are regaining their normal condition, and after observation indicates that this is so, they are removed to a casual detachment at the hospital for brief additional observation. When it is evident they have recovered they are sent to camps near their homes to be mustered out.

The rapidity with which cases are being cleared through Plattsburg convinces Colonel Bailey that there will be few permanently disabled by the disease. This is in marked contrast to the situation in England where there are 20,000 shell shock victims on the pension rolls.

Colonel Bailey revealed that, contrary to the general belief, shell shock does not necessarily come from heavy cannonading. Proof of this is found in the fact that from 10 to 12 per cent of the casualties in the Chateau Thierry fighting were shell shock, most of these men having been exposed only to machine gun fire.

AVENGES DEATH OF BROTHER

Yankee in Desperate Hand-to-Hand Encounter Kills Hun Who Had Just Slain Brother.

Bristol, Tenn.—In a letter to relatives here Claude Stagle, a local boy, tells how he got the Hun that killed his brother Frank. Both boys went over the top side by side until the younger one, Frank, was killed. The Hun shot Frank through the heart and then charged madly on Claude, who ran his bayonet through the Hun's body, but did not succeed in killing him. A desperate hand-to-hand struggle ensued, but Claude drew his revolver and killed him with his last bullet, avenging his brother Frank, who had fallen dead a few minutes before.

Snake Story.
A species of viper (Viper macrops) from Bosnia, about 18 inches in length, seems to feed exclusively on grasshoppers. An interesting point about this little snake is that, although poisonous, it may be handled with impunity. If teased, it may hiss and snap, but never bites unless seriously hurt.

Could Make Only Half Time on Account of Sickness. Since Taking Tonal, One Bottle, Lost No Time.

"Since I took Tonal I can eat like a woodchopper," says John Rudy, 341 North Ninth street, Lebanon, Pa., and employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company. "I suffered from indigestion; could not eat without pain, had to constantly use tablets to relieve pain. I tried all kinds of medicine, but Tonal is the only thing that fixed me up. I have lost no time at work since taking one bottle, while before I lost half my time. I do not have to take tablets for pain now. I am 55 years old and am married."

This testimonial was given Oct. 16, 1918. TONAL is sold at all leading drug stores in Gettysburg, and E. T. Auker, New Oxford.

Friendship and Freedom.
There can be no friendship where there is no freedom. Friendship loves a free air and will not be penned up in strait and narrow enclosures. It will speak freely and act so, too; and take nothing ill where no ill is meant; and where it is, 'twill easily forgive, and forget, too, upon small acknowledgments.—Penn.

RHEUMATISM

Physician Believes a Genuine Remedy for the Disease Has Been Found.

Rheuma, the wonderful rheumatism remedy sold by Peoples' Drug Store and all druggists, gives quicker and more lasting relief than other remedies costing many times as much.

Rheuma passes the deadly poisonous secretions into the bowels and kidneys, from which they are quickly thrown off in a natural, healthy way.

Read what a reputable physician says about Rheuma: "I have made a most careful investigation of the formula employed in the manufacture of Rheuma, and I heartily recommend it as a remedy for all forms of rheumatism. I find Rheuma far in advance of the methods generally employed in the treatment of rheumatism, and altogether different in composition from the remedies usually prescribed."—Dr. M. C. Lyons.

This should be any sufferer from rheumatism confidence to try Rheuma.

QUICK RELIEF
FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

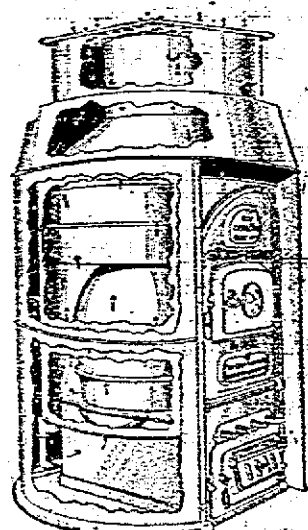

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

SAYS COLD WEATHER
BRINGS RETURN OF INFLUENZA.

Public Must be Careful to Avoid a Second Epidemic Easier to Prevent than Cure. What to do.

"Encouraging reports of the fewer cases of Influenza in this vicinity should not allow us to relax our vigilance or to become careless in the belief that the danger is all over," says a well known authority. "With the coming of cold weather there is apt to be a return of this frightful epidemic and its seriousness will depend on the extent of the precautions taken by the public, to prevent infection."

When the air is full of influenza germs, you may be constantly breathing them into your nose and throat. But their danger may be avoided and you may make yourself practically immune to infection if you destroy the germ before it actually begins to work in your blood.

During the recent serious epidemic, which hit Gettysburg so hard, most successful results were obtained by many through the simple breathing into the nose, throat and lungs of the medicated air of oil of Hyomei. Probably no better, safer or more sensible precaution against Influenza, Grippe, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis or Catarrh of the nose and throat could be employed than to go now to the nearest drug store and get a complete Hyomei outfit consisting of a bottle of the pure Oil of Hyomei and a little vest-pocket hard rubber inhaling device into which a few drops of the oil are poured.

Carry this Inhaler with you during the day and each half hour or so put it in your mouth and draw deep breaths of its pure healing germicidal air into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs to destroy any germs that may have found lodgment there. This simple precaution may save you a serious illness and the loss of several weeks work. It is pleasant to use and not at all expensive as the inhaler will last a lifetime and further supplies of the Oil of Hyomei can be had at any drug store for a few cents.

Hundreds of people in this vicinity used Hyomei in this way during the recent crisis and avoided danger. They should not neglect it now for the danger is by no means over.

HELPS AGNEW'S WIFE
IN TRYING PERIOD

Charles Agnew, 5442 Ella street, Philadelphia, in describing the improvement in his wife's condition says: "She suffered from nervous indigestion, a run-down system with twinges of rheumatism in her joints. She was not very ill at any time but just had that nagging gastritis with jumpy nerves. She bought Tanlac because a friend and her daughter recommended it. By use of Tanlac she is doing better than for a long time. Tanlac has helped her through a trying period."

The genuine Tanlac, which bears the name J. I. Gore Co., on outside carton, is now sold here by Peoples' Drug Store and other leading druggists. Tanlac the celebrated vegetable tonic, stomachic and health builder, is also sold in neighboring cities and towns. Ask for it.

Swift & Company's
1918 Earnings

How They Affected You

During the twelve months ended Nov. 2, 1918 (its fiscal year), Swift & Company transacted the largest volume of business on the smallest margin of profit in its history.

Profits of the meat business—under regulations of the United States Food Administration—were limited to a maximum of 9 per cent on capital employed but not to exceed 2½ cents per dollar of sales.

Swift & Company in the regulated departments earned 7.57 per cent on capital employed and 2.04 cents per dollar of sales, out of which had to be paid interest on borrowed money and taxes. Here is how these earnings affect you.

Live-Stock Raiser—

Swift & Company killed 14,948,000 head of livestock, which weighed alive, 4,971,500,000 pounds.

Swift & Company made a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound liveweight.

Consumer—

The sales of our meat departments were 4,012,579,000 pounds on which our earnings were less than ½ cent per pound.

The per capita consumption of meat in the United States is given as 170 pounds. If a consumer purchased only Swift & Company's products, he would contribute only about 78 cents a year, or 1½ cents a week as profit to the company.

Beauty and Duty

By ALVAH JORDAN GARTH

(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union.)

He was a very handsome man and knew it, and his wife knew it, too; had doted on him, spoiled him, and now after that operation had become jealous, cynical and bitter and called him to time.

"Reginald Walton," she had said in that final arraignment, "there is going to be a change. You have done nothing for a year but groom yourself after a late breakfast, and sit around to be admired by the silly old maids and languishing young widows among our clientele. I am working my life away from morning until night; poor Marie, our daughter, comes home nights worn out with her steady work as a stenographer, and you do not contribute one cent to the family income. There has got to be a new order of things or I shall give up the boarding house and force you back to honest work."

"My dear Lucie," responded Reginald Walton blandly, "you know I have been slowly recovering from that fit of sickness last winter; in fact an invalid. Convalescent now, but, for all my idle time, you must admit that I have done all in my power to maintain the dignity."

"Fiddlesticks!"

"And attract and hold your boarders, especially—ahem—the ladies. I am no man flirt, my heart's devotion is yours exclusively, but I cannot help attracting attention from the other sex. Don't be cross. I revere you as the truest helpmeet a man ever had. Don't make me mourn, for life is one perpetual round of joy basking in your love."

It was true, Reginald Walton was not a man flirt. He was courtesy itself to his wife's boarders; he shone as a distinguishing mark in the little household. Perted, idle, living on the best of the land, work had become an aversion to him. He had no idea of becoming again a toiler, and within a few days his wife's insistency was renewed and ended in a scene in which Mr. Walton swung from the house with the dramatic words:

"Very well; you turn me from my home out into the cold world. I shall not return until I can bring you what you seem to think more of than myself—money, crude, common cash!"

Then he was gone—and did not return. In vain mother and daughter awaited his meek coming back with the morning. A week went by—Mrs. Walton was fairly distracted. It was all that Marie could do to solace her. Burt Dawson, her fiance, made a wide search for the missing husband and father, but fruitlessly.

Then came relief of mind. A letter arrived from the truant postmarked at a distant city. No address, no particulars, only the words:

"I am following your advice and working—hard. When I'm worthy of it, I'm coming back to eat one of your glorious Sunday dinners."

What Reginald Walton had done was to seek and find work in a munition plant. He earned most liberal wages and saved them. With exercise and an object in life he did not regret the transition from his former rapid and profitless existence.

One day Reginald Walton did a valiant deed. A heap of light, tundry refuse had caught fire and blazed up against the side of a low frame building where some 50 girls were employed filling cartridges. A mere spark would have meant destruction and possibly death. The only man in the vicinity was Walton.

Directly in the path of the flames on a narrow trackway was a small truck bearing half a hundred large shells filled with high explosives. Already the truck was blazing. Walton realized that once the flames communicated to the shells an upheaval would result that would bring the adjoining building down in ruins with all its now terrified and penned-in inmates.

"It's their lives or mine!" he muttered doughtily. "Here goes!"

Walton ran at the truck and sent it forward down the trackway. There was a terrific explosion, and amidst the mighty flare Walton went prostrate, singed, blinded, wounded in a score of places by flying fragments of shrapnel, but the plant was saved.

One evening two months later Mrs. Walton, Marie and her fiance were seated in the parlor of the boarding house. Only four of the former 11 lady boarders were now guests in the house. They were discussing the advisability of Mrs. Walton giving up the business when the door opened and with a hearty "Hello!" the truant entered the room.

But what a Reginald Walton! His leonine mane of hair and magnificent whiskers were gone, his face was scarred and all his beauty departed. To his arms ran the delighted wife, while Marie and Burt greeted him as returned from the grave.

"You needn't fear about my fascinating wiles any more, Lucie," he observed. "And you can take life a little easier now, for there's the reward of sacrificing beauty to duty," and he placed in her hands a bulging wallet.

"Why, what is this?" inquired the mystified Mrs. Walton.

"Oh, only five thousand dollars donated to me by the owners of a munition plant for exceptional bravery that saved property and life," explained Reginald lightly. "And now, Lucie, for your homemade pie and cake and a real artistic and satisfying meal!"

No Need To Be Thin.

Scrawny or Sallow
It's Only Because the Stomach Doesn't Furnish Enough Nourishment to the Body.

If you are thin and want to be plump; if you have wrinkles in your face that you are not proud of; if the skin is sallow or subject to pimples or blackheads, take Mi-o-na stomach tablets for two weeks and notice the change.

The majority of the thin people are thin because the stomach does not perform its duties properly. It is not secreting sufficient of the natural digestive juices and in consequence does not extract from the food enough nutritive matter to nourish every part of the body. When the stomach does not do its work properly, the nourishment in the food you eat is not extracted and passes through the body without leaving any flesh building elements.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are intended to build up the stomach so that it will act properly and extract from the food all elements necessary to form good, solid flesh.

If you are thin try two weeks treatment of Mi-o-na stomach tablets—they are small, easily swallowed and have made many friends by their own proven value.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold on the guarantee of money back if they do not overcome indigestion, acute or chronic, stop stomach disturbance, belching, heartburn, sour stomach, and any other dinner distress.

For sale by People's Drug Store and all leading druggists.

A MOTHER'S STRENGTH

Mother, whose hands rock the cradle, often needs more than ordinary food to help maintain the blood-quality and strength and to assure adequate nourishment to the child. It is as unwise for the mother, as it is dangerous to the child, to place dependence upon alcoholic stimulation, for strength is not found in alcohol.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

of purest cod liver oil, absolutely free from alcohol, is mother's true friend, in that it performs a two-fold duty. Scott's is tonic nourishment, particularly fitted for the trying period of motherhood.
